Terms and Conditions of Membership in the International Microgrid Association

The information contained in this application is true and correct, and the Applicant is qualified to apply for the International Microgrid Association membership. As a member, Applicant will comply with and abide by the Constitution of The International Microgrid Association*, as well as other association and membership rules that may be subsequently adopted by the International Microgrid Association Board.

The designated representative is authorized to receive and distribute The International Microgrid Association communications, and to vote on matters presented for ballot to the general membership, if applicable. The Applicant will not divulge information identified as confidential by The International Microgrid Association Board of Directors. The undersigned applicant hereby appoints the Executive Director of The International Microgrid Association, or his/her successors, as the Applicant's agent to approve the form and substance of any such publication or disclosure. Participation in The International Microgrid Association Program Committees may be subject to additional requirements, including intellectual property and confidentiality agreements. By having an authorized representative sign this application, the Applicant agrees and represents that they have read and acknowledged the Terms and Conditions of Membership in The International Microgrid Association.

Membership fees are non-refundable and due at the time of application, payable to The International Microgrid Association Ltd. Annual membership is renewed automatically, invoiced and due payable according to when the organisation has joined, unless The International Microgrid Association is notified in writing of a desired change in status. Applications are subject to acceptance by The International Microgrid Association Board of Directors.

Associate, Affiliate, Startup and Student Members do not have voting rights for the International Microgrid Association.
